

FILM FESTIVAL

7th

Annual 2007

LEARN

MINGLE

ENJOY

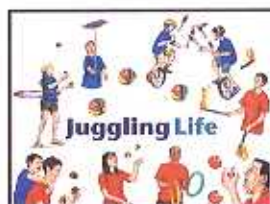

The year's most entertaining and important films. From award-winning shorts to animation from a Disney veteran, this festival will be the event of the season. Here is just a sampling ...

DIRECTORS WRITERS
ACTORS
FILMS
PARTIES WORKSHOPS
NOV. 15-18

Featuring Films & Filmmakers from NJ

TO BUY TICKETS: 609.884.6700 or www.njstatefilmfestival.com

JUGGLING LIFE

Lou De Lauro an award-winning teacher and other dedicated instructors are on a mission to make a difference through the New Jersey Is Beautiful Juggling Program!

LETTING GO

This film, produced at the request of Steven Spielberg's reality TV show, "On the Lot," tells the story of a nine year old who decides to put away his blanky and a father who's finding it difficult. Critics have called this film "a mini-masterpiece."

ALEX SCOTT: A Stand for Hope

New anchor Larry Mendte tells how a little girl with a dream and a lemonade stand can do amazing things.

INDESCRIBABLE Nth

Disney veteran animator/director Steve Moore (who has worked on The Nightmare Before Christmas, The Brave Little Toaster, Robots, and other modern classics) tells the story of how a boy with his heart in a snow globe finds love.

INDIAN SUMMER

Sam Garrison, an elderly widower whiling away his days in mourning at his home on the New Jersey shore, ventures out on a bright Fall day and meets a spirited widow who shows him there's still a lot of life left to be lived.

GOING HOME

As a troubled young man walks home from school a chance meeting shows him that there are many ways to reach his destination.

NEW RIVER: A Family Musical History Tour

Zane & Hugh Campbell document the lives of their musical family with strong roots in early Country and Bluegrass music—featuring a live performance by the brothers.

THE BULLETS

Michael Davis and the Bullets will be joined by New River host Zane Campbell to play an electric set during an opening reception that will really rock!

RIMALEV, THE 7th HOUSE

Will Kahane and a group of Holocaust survivors journey to the Ukraine to attend a memorial at a mass gravesite, but local priests have their own ideas on how the service should be conducted.

Special Robert Prosky Retrospective!

This year, Cape May's favorite star comes to town for an exclusive screening of some of his best works. Thanks to our friends at The Beach Theater for supplying the venue for this event!